A New Year ! Out with Old Politics & In with the New

“A brilliant start to 2010”

This was how North Norfolk MP Norman Lamb described the selection of local member Dan Roper as Liberal Democrat Prospective Parliamentary candidate for Broadland.

In the spring Dan Roper will be bidding to become the first MP for the brand new Broadland constituency. His top promise is to be a different type of MP with a new type of politics that is about putting people first and rejecting the “MP’s club” that has become so discredited.

Dan says “ I am delighted to be selected to fight for the constituency where I live and my children go to school. I really believe in putting community back into politics and I hope to be a strong voice for Broadland and everyone who lives in this new constituency”.

“A lot of people are saying that it is a difficult choice at the coming General Election. Labour seem to have run out of ideas but the Conservatives got everything wrong about the recession. The Liberal Democrats are a positive vote for change. I am one politician who will never take you for granted”.

Dan lives in Spixworth, with his young family. He is a qualified Probation Officer who has worked in criminal justice for the whole of his career. He is currently a manager at a Norfolk Prison. Dan says “my work gives me real insight into how crime wrecks lives. I am dedicated to making our communities safer and this is work that I want to take to parliament.

I certainly want to bring a bit more honesty into politics” .
